Section III.02 Election and Terms of Officers

(a) Officers shall serve staggered two-year terms.

(b) Member-at-large shall serve a one-year term.

(c) Officers are elected at the November annual meeting by a majority vote of a quorum of the members and will take office upon election.

Section III.03 Vacancies.

(a) If a vacancy occurs in the CCFM Board, other than from the expiration of a term of office, the Board shall notify the membership and may:

(i) appoint a member to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting of the members;

(ii) opt to allow the office to remain vacant until the next annual meeting of the members.

Section III.04 Board Meetings

Capital City Farmers Market Bylaws

Meetings of the CCFM Board shall be held monthly, or at such other times and at such places as the CCFM Board may determine. Board meetings will be warned to the membership.

Management of Business

(a) The primary function of the CCFM Board will be to create and carry out policies of the market consistent with the Rules and Bylaws of the membership, as formally adopted at duly notified annual meetings.

(b) The CCFM Board shall have general supervision and control of the operation of CCFM, not inconsistent with law or with these bylaws for the management of the business and the guidance of the members, officers, and employees.

(c) The CCFM Board shall have the power to employ, or contract with, a market manager and decide her/his duties and fix her/his compensation.

(d) The CCFM Board shall have an accounting system, which shall be adequate to the requirements of the business, and it shall be its duty to require proper records to be kept of all business transactions.

Section III.05 Fiscal Review

(a) Once in each year, the Board shall appoint an internal audit committee, which shall include one Board member and two or more CCFM members, who shall make an accurate review of the books and accounts of the CCFM and write a report and submit it to the CCFM Board.

(b) This report shall include at least a balance sheet showing the true assets and liabilities of the CCFM, and an income statement showing revenues and expenses.

Section III.06 Financial Management

(a) CCFM Board shall have the power to (1) select one or more financial institutions to act as depositories of the funds of the CCFM, (2) determine the manner of receiving, depositing and disbursing the funds of the CCFM, and (3) determine which board members shall be signatories to accounts holding CCFM assets.

(a) The CCFM Board may, at its discretion, appoint, on an ad hoc basis, committees, as it may deem necessary.

Article VII. RULE BOOK

Section VII.01 The CCFM Board will publish the Rules and Bylaws annually. Rules and Bylaws may be made and/or changed at the annual membership meeting or a warned special membership meeting.

Article VIII. NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

Section VIII.01 The CCFM does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, and sexual orientation or age in its programs, activities or in its hiring and employment practices.

Article IX. ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

Capital City Farmers Market Bylaws

Section IX.01 It is the policy of the CCFM not to tolerate any sexual, physical, psychological or verbal harassment of our members or customers. Members committing any of the following acts will be subject to an investigation by the CCFM Board and disciplinary action if warranted, up to and including termination.

(a) Harassment encompasses a broad range of physical or verbal behavior which can include, but is not limited to: sexual abuse, physical or mental abuse, racial insults, derogatory ethnic jokes, religious slurs, taunting, or intending to provoke another person.

(b) In the event that any of our members or customers feel that there is a violation of this policy, he or she should immediately bring it to the attention of the CCFM Board for investigation.

Article X. INDEMNIFICATION

Section X.01 The CCFM shall indemnify and reimburse each former, current, and future board representative and officer for any claims or liability (including expenses and attorney fees actually and reasonably incurred) to which such person may become subject by reason of being a board representative or officer or by reason of his or her acts or omissions as a board representative or officer. Such indemnification shall be made only if it is determined by the CCFM Board that the board representative or officer acted in good faith and reasonable belief that his or her action was in the best interest of the Capital City Farmers Market. The foregoing shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which board representatives and officers may be lawfully entitled.

Article XI. AMENDMENTS OF BYLAWS

Section XI.01 These Bylaws may be amended by a simple majority vote of the members' quorum present and voting at meetings, provided notice of proposed amendments is provided in writing and mailed (by U.S. mail or email) to all members two weeks in advance.
